

Collaboration & Teamwork: Paraprofessionals in the General Classroom

Specifically designed for Paraprofessionals working in Grades K-12 with students with Learning Disabilities & Mild to Moderate Special Needs.

- Develop an understanding of potential benefits of collaboration and define approaches to achieving those benefits.
- Practical, proven strategies for overcoming common roadblocks to effective collaboration.
- Gain an understanding of personality styles and the significant role they play in successful collaborative relationships.

GENERAL INFORMATION

All workshops can be customized and tailored to district needs.

Target Audience: Grades 1-12, Paraprofessionals

Program costs:

Costs are determined on an individual basis. Costs are reasonable and negotiable.

Contact information:

To schedule a consultation/ training or for more information, telephone 210-473-2863 from 7:00 a.m. EST through 8:00 p.m, EST, Monday through Friday . Fax: 210-473-2863.

E-mail: sfitzell@aimhieducational.com

* www.aimhieducational.com

KEY BENEFITS

Identify Ways for Educators to Work Collaboratively.

Learn practical ways for teachers and paraprofessionals to work together to make inclusion work with the least amount of stress.

Gain Practical Strategies for maximizing the effectiveness of paraprofessionals working with students with learning disabilities and mild to moderate special needs in the general classroom.

Classroom-Proven techniques for paraprofessionals to increase the achievement of students with disabilities in the general classroom.

Tips for Communicating Effectively with parents, teachers and other paraprofessionals .

Gain strategies and approaches for defining roles, identifying challenges and working collaboratively to find solutions to those challenges.

This workshop

- is an excellent follow-up to Special Needs in the General Classroom: Strategies That Make it work which focuses on differentiating curriculum to meet IEP requirements.
- focuses on collaboration skills, defining roles and working effectively in the general classroom.

