

Special Needs in the General Classroom: How Do We Make it Work While Respecting Native American Culture

This workshop incorporates the latest research on successful Native American educational approaches. Specific consideration is given to Native American culture, learning style and motivating factors.

Specifically designed for Classroom Teachers, Special Education Teachers, Program Specialists and Administrators serving students in Grades 1-12 with Mild to Moderate Special Needs.

Includes:

- Successful strategies for including students with disabilities or other special needs in the regular classroom.
- Demonstrations, activities, samples of lessons and extensive resource handbook filled with useful materials and strategies.

GENERAL INFORMATION

All workshops can be customized and tailored to district needs.

Target Audience: Grades 1-12, Regular and Special Education Staff and Administration

Program costs:

Costs are determined on an individual basis. Costs are reasonable and negotiable.

Contact information:

To schedule a consultation/ training or for more information, telephone 210-473-2863 from 7:00 a.m. EST through 8:00 p.m, EST, Monday through Friday . Fax: 210-473-2863.

E-mail: sfitzell@aimhieducational.com

* www.aimhieducational.com

KEY BENEFITS

Successful Strategies And Techniques For Adapting Curricula to Meet IEP Requirements for Students with Special Needs

Minimal theory and maximum practical and easily implemented strategies and techniques will be covered in this program.

Maximize Student Performances. .

Learn the key steps for helping special needs students be successful learners. Teach them to stay organized, complete homework, and learn the value of studying.

Apply Practical Strategies That Make Instruction Work

Identify and learn how to implement strategies and approaches in the regular classroom that encourage the success of special needs students without watering down the curriculum.

Assessing Students with Special Needs

The latest ideas on assessing and grading special education students in general education classrooms.

Learn to create worksheets, lessons and activities that promote success for ALL students.

Through concrete examples, learn to identify ways to enhance worksheets, tests and quizzes to be more effective teaching tools for special education students AND regular education students in the classroom.

Discover Activities That Increase Retention And Success On Tests And Quizzes.

Through participation in games and FUN activities, learn how to increase student success. These activities are quickly and easily prepared, encourage student cooperation and peer support and are simply effective.

Promote Success for ALL Students

Through concrete examples, learn to identify ways to enhance worksheets, tests and quizzes to be more effective teaching tools for special education students AND regular education students in the classroom.