You Mean Chris Felt Left Out? Social Considerations for Inclusive Classrooms

Do special students in the mainstream classroom feel included? Many times students with learning difficulties in the mainstream feel exclusion and social isolation. How do we help them to fit in and feel welcome and supported by their peers? In this workshop you will gain insight into how social exclusion occurs in the inclusion classroom and learn intervention strategies to increase the acceptance and success of the special learner in your class.

Agenda

Do children with special needs feel included?

In-class exclusion and social isolation

What's so special about him?

The class "Mascot"

But, she acts so weird!

Who's problem is this, anyway?

He's so CUTE!

Included but rejected and bullied

No one told me!
